EXPERIENCES

Self Frontend Learner (Aug. 2020-now)

I learned about web development from my ICT books. Then I found w3schools to master web development. I love reading the official docs. Now I'm a good google searcher. Here are some of my recent projects:

Amazon Clone

Amazon.com clone using NextJS and Tailwind CSS.

Twitter Clone

- To use the service, a user needs to sign in with Google.
- Users can send messages to other users in realtime.
- The user can also delete their tweets and comments.
- The images present in a tweet and chat are stored in the Firebase Storage Bucket.
